Reflections of Life

Marie T. Clementine was born on October 1, 1939 in Pickneyville, Mississippi to the parents of Mae Martha Clarke Toliver and Sidney Toliver. She was educated in the Public School system of New Orleans, Louisiana. She was united in marriage on April 12, 1956 to Joseph Ferran Clementine and from this union five children were born. After relocating to New York, she attended Bronx Community College. Marie was employed in the NYC Public School system and the Post Office, but her long-term tenure included Domestic employment.

Marie was well known and appreciated as a soft-spoken, compassionate, and generous person who was always willing to share her blessings with others. Her siblings and other family members knew they could always get a sympathetic ear and a helping hand. She was a hard-working mother who strived to provide for the success of her children and grandchildren. She enjoyed reading the Bible, and one of her favorite things to do was "work her lottery numbers" on a daily basis in an attempt to determine the winning numbers. Unfortunately, she never got that winning combination.

She was preceded in death by her husband; Joseph Clementine, son; Joseph "Joey" Clementine, father; Sidney Toliver, mother; Mae Martha Clarke Toliver, step-mother; Mary Jane Toliver, sister; Dorothy Washington and step-brother Robert Adams.

She will be lovingly remembered and greatly missed by her three daughters; Diane Clementine, Cheryl Clementine, Cynara Rivera, son; Michael Clementine; sister; Mary Lynn Gage, brother; James Toliver, step-brother; James Adams, grandchildren; Farin Clementine, Richard "Jamaal" Phoenix, Carisse Rivera, Ian Rivera, Carlos Cruz, great grandchildren; Carlos Cruz, Jr., nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love
that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey
that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
