Obituary

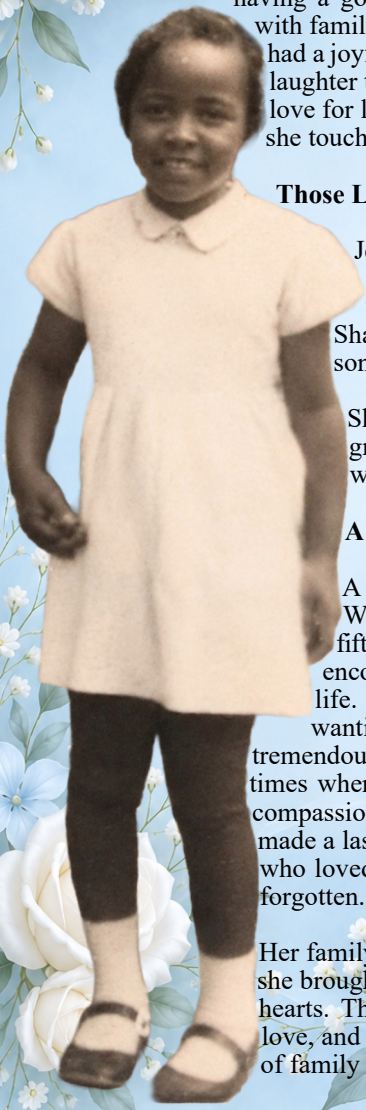
Jestine Dunbar, 76, of New York City, formerly of Aiken, South Carolina, went home to be with the Lord on November 4, 2026. She was born on September 8, 1950, to the late Robert Dunbar and Aetna Dunbar.

Jestine received her childhood education through the Aiken County Public School System and was a proud graduate of Aiken High School.

Jestine was known for her beautiful laughter, generous spirit, and unwavering love and support for others. She had a love for music, enjoyed dancing, and simply loved having a good time. She enjoyed celebrating life, spending time with family and friends, and making memories along the way. She had a joyful personality and a special way of bringing smiles and laughter to those around her. Her loving heart, vibrant spirit, and love for life will forever be remembered by everyone whose life she touched.



Those Left to Cherish Her Memory

Jestine leaves to cherish her precious memories her loving family, including one son, Clarence Dunbar and three daughters, Litsia Dunbar, Tanya Ballard and Kim Sharp; a beloved daughter-in-law, Catrina Dunbar and a son-in-law, Everett Sharp and a host of cousins.

She also leaves behind ten grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and one precious great-grandchild on the way.

A Special Acknowledgment

A special recognition and heartfelt appreciation to Mr. Winston Tuell, who stood by Jestine's side for more than fifteen years, offering his love, companionship, encouragement, and unwavering support throughout her life. He remained by her side until the very end, always wanting the best for her. He also stepped in and provided tremendous help, kindness, and support to the entire family during times when it was needed most. His dedication, generosity, and compassion meant more than words can express. His presence made a lasting difference in Jestine's life and in the lives of those who loved her. His kindness and years of support will never be forgotten.

Her family will forever treasure the love she shared, the laughter she brought, and the countless memories that will remain in their hearts. Though she is no longer with us physically, her spirit, love, and legacy will continue to live on through the generations of family she leaves behind.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
