

Precious Memories

A sister, a confidante,
most definitely a friend
She gave from her heart
Which reached no end

An angel who descended
From the heavens above
Provided those around her
With God's peace and love

The time for your departure
Has now come and gone
But still, take this message
And be forewarned;

Our love is everlasting
Our love is oh so deep
The rest you now take
Is just an endless, peaceful sleep

Don't worry about those you left behind
Don't worry about "whatever"
Our love and faith will see us through
As we await our hereafter

~ Love, your Brother Keith

The Obituary

Chyrelle Y. Jackson was born in Ft. Riley, KS to the late Ozzie Lee and Carrye Bell Jackson on August 14, 1962. Chyrelle was educated in the Plainfield, NJ school system.

After graduating from Plainfield High School. Chyrelle (or CYJ as she referred to herself) began a career with the Division of Youth and Family Services. She retired from DYFS after twenty-seven years of service in 2008.

Chyrelle gave her life to Christ at an early age. She had been a member of Peaceful Zion Baptist Church for over forty years. She had always enjoyed going to church. During her service at Peaceful Zion Chyrelle was a member of the Tiny Tots Youth Choir, the original Voices of Peace Choir, the Pastor's Aide, and could often be found working alongside the Kitchen Committee (although she would never officially join the group). Chyrelle was known for frying some good chicken (or "bird" as she called it). In recent months, Chyrelle re-joined the Joint Usher Board. She ushered for the first time November 1, 2009 and she was so jubilant! Also in 2009, Chyrelle served as Co-Chairperson of the 65th Church Anniversary Committee. She worked diligently all year, gearing up for the November celebration. When she gave her final remarks, she simply said "Well, it's over."

Those who knew anything about Chyrelle, knew she was a die-hard Dallas Cowboys fan!! Chyrelle was known for asking the pastor to quicken the service so she could get home in time for the game. If that was not possible, she would call someone for the score, then, somehow announce the score during the service!

Chyrelle loved many sports including baseball and bowling. She also enjoyed a good game of Spades and would play until the wee hours of the morning. If she and her partner-in-crime, Theresa Taylor, ran a "Boston," you wouldn't live it down for weeks!

Chyrelle was considered an "old soul." She loved traditional gospel music, and could often be found listening to artists such as The Canton Spirituals, Dorothy Norwood, Shirley Caesar, etc. She revered in elders so dearly and would spend many hours talking with them.

Chyrelle had an infectious laugh and a beautiful smile! She had certain sayings that would cover any situation, such as "Yeah, Honey" or "Let's Hit It" or "The Party's Over" or "This Ain't Hitting on Nothing." But, the one that summed up everything was "Uh-Huh."

Chyrelle loved the Lord and she declared to Him that she wanted to live. She began her "Brand New Life" on the morning of March 30, 2010.

Chyrelle leaves to cherish her legacy: her brother, Richard L. Jackson and sister, Genodra Reeves, both of FL, brother, Keith D. Jackson and sister, Sandra L. Shropshire, both of GA, and sister, Kendra D. Jackson; nephews, Rasheim Myers (Elsa) and Christopher Jackson, both of NM; nieces, Katanya Myers and Troi Foster; one brother-in-law, Dwayne Myers; two great nephews, Anthony Jackson of PA and Jeremiah Myers; godparents, Willie and Barbara Christmas of NC; godsiblings, Theresa Taylor (Johnnie), Pamela Jones (Isaac), Sonja Knight and Willie Smith (Lisa); Guardian Angels, Gennette McLaughlin, Ola Montgomery, Aimee Evans, Sharon Alls, Anita Scott and Flossie Bigelow; three godchildren, Christian Jones, Xavier Jones and Dylan Jones; close friend, Bea Tyson; her beloved DYFS and PZBC families; and a host of other relatives and friends.

She has joined in eternity her sister, Faye L. Myers.
