

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
 My loved ones, oh so dear.
 But you see, the Master called me,
 His voice was very clear!
 I had made my reservation
 A heaven bound ticket for one,
 And I knew that He would call me
 When He felt my work was done.
 I know that your hearts are heavy
 Because I have gone away,
 But when the Master called me,
 I knew that I could not stay.
 Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
 My loved ones, oh so dear,
 But, you see, the Master called me
 And, now I'm resting here.
 Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
 And to you all I say
 Just stay in the hands of Jesus
 And we'll meet again some day.

The Obituary

Lucille Moore Baker, 79 of Orange, New Jersey, was born on April 1, 1931, in Newark, New Jersey. At Select Specialty Hospital in Rochelle Park, NJ, on the evening of April 13, 2010, at 6:00 PM, God sent one of His angels to whisper into the ear of Lucille that it was time for her move from labor to reward. And so we, along with Lucille, humbly bow to His perfect will. We know that she was one of His, for she had accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and was part of the congregation at First Baptist Church in Nutley NJ.

Lucille was one of the six children born to the union of the late Josephine Graham Moore and William Moore, Sr. "Cille", as she was affectionately known, received her elementary and secondary education in the public school system in the city of her birth.

Lucille had a natural gift for leadership, and spent many of her working years at Amerace Corporation in Union where she served as the Shop Steward for Local 160 UAW, until the company merged with Russell Stoll in Livingston where she continued her employment until her retirement in 1993.

Cille was also blessed with a love for people. This was very evident when you saw what joy she took in entertaining family and friends. She was very loving and generous in giving. There was no one who enjoyed preparing holiday meals for the family more than Cille. Cooking and eating smothered pork chops, rice, mashed potatoes and string beans was one of her favorite meals. She loved showing off her great sense of humor and her contagious laughter, with its sound of cackling, ending with a short chuckle was sure to bring a wide smile to your face. You are sure to remember, Cille's direct, straight forward demeanor you just knew that if she had something to say to you, she wasn't going to dance lightly around the subject, but would confront the topic head on. We all know that this experience had a way of reducing even the mightiest to tears. Even in all of that, you just knew that she was full of love for you. One of the ways she showed her love for those around her was that she would give them all nicknames. Cille was a true devotee of the Pick-it. Why she would spend time actually doing analysis of the numbers before she would play them. With all the good memories Cille has left us, none is greater than after her retirement, how dedicated and devoted she became to caring for her great-grandchildren, grand nieces and nephews; each one of whom singularly and collectively became the loves of her life.

Cille has left to mourn her passing and to cherish fond memories, her daughter, Brooklesa M.C. Hayman (Frank) of Irvington. Her stepdaughter Cynthia M. Richardson (Adrian) of Royal Palm Beach, Fla. Three grandchildren; Floyd B. Hayman, III (Shelly) of Mt. Vernon, WA., Shellaine Coney (James) of Jamestown, NC, and Tori Hayman of Irvington, NJ Great-grandchildren; Cherie, James "LJ", Brandon, Lashelle & Jalen; Her sister, Josephine Moore of Orange, NJ; one brother-in-law Jent Pierce; one sister-in-law, Eva Moore and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Lucille Moore Baker has joined in eternity, her parents, four sisters, Grace Outcalt, Selma Frey, Mattie Coleman and Ruth Pierce and her brother, William Moore, Jr.

REST SWEET CILLE.
THANK YOU FOR A LIFE WELL LIVED.
