Obituary

Dennis Ray Burrell Robinson was born on May 15, 1955 in Rocky Mount, North Carolina to Dorothy Burrell Robinson and the late Johnny B. Leonard.

Dennis played the bass and lead guitar in a band and at many functions in New Jersey as a young adult. He also sang and played the guitar at several churches in Jersey City. He visited many churches and also studied the bible (in recent months) at his home with (Jehovah's Witness') bible students.

Dennis loved to entertain his family and friends. He was a moody person. He either wanted to be left alone or be the life of the party and usually he was the life of the party.

Dennis graduated from P.S. #34 School and attended Snyder High School in Jersey City. He didn't like school, but he was very smart and his capabilities were endless. He loved to use colorful words in conversations, especially when getting his point across.

Dennis was musically inclined and a gifted musician. He was very talented and could fix anything that was broken. He was a skilled laborer and chef at many companies and restaurant locations throughout New Jersey before his early retirement.

Dennis was a very over protective brother and son and made sure that his mother was well guarded and taken care of. Dennis was a polite, charming guy who was well liked by many. He was a special son, father, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend, who will be sorely missed.

Surviving to cherish Dennis's memory are: his devoted mother, Dorothy Robinson; his two sons, Dennis, Jr. (Ray Ray) and Devin; two brothers, James (J.R.) Robinson, Jr. And Robert (Shi) Robinson; one sister, Darlene Robinson; two aunts, Thomasina Cruz and Corleida Burrell; one uncle, Rev. George Wiggins; three nephews, Damien, Carl and Shakoore; two nieces, Kenyata and Shiniee; special cousin, Corleida Burrell; close friend, Gerald Baker; and a host of other loving relatives, cousins and friends.

Dennis was predeceased by his stepfather, James Robinson, Sr., aunt, Naomi Burrell Wiggins, uncles, Willie and Daniel Burrell and niece, Shirita Marie Norris.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
