Obituary

Eulia Mae Booker was born on July 31, 1951 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Annie and Richard F. Booker, Sr. She entered into rest on April 24, 2010 at the age of fifty-eight to be with her two sisters, Cora L. Allen and Pearl McCall, neice, Vanetta Booker, nephew, Richard Baker III and aunt, Martha Gaynor.

She was raised in Newark, where she graduated from South Side High School and attended Essex County College. She received her Associated degree in business management and was a certified Teachers Aid. She was also self employed as a Day Care Provider and a community activist.

She will be greatly missed by her brother, Richard Booker, Jr; cousins, Beatrice Thomas and Reggie; a devoted mother and caring grandmother. She will be dearly missed by her family and friends, one daughter, Quincy Ann; four sons, John, Alraynard, Alterique and Rajohn, Sr.; daughter-in-law, Naemah; nieces, Rosita, Ashley and Wynette; grandchildren, Tiffany, Tysheemah, Shantaya, Quindora, Frank, Jr., Tygrerah, RaJohn, Jr. Zenavia-Eulia and Naeman and Luther; great grandchildren, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Zamire, Danielle and Leann; great niece and nephew, Keturah, Prunella, Rasheem, Dedra, Krishna, Amirah and Saleek.

Eulia always held God and Jesus as the highest authority and was also a blessing to most people. Eulia Mae's independence, youthful heart and sense of adventure helped her live life to the fullest. We all hope that we can walk away with a sense of her joy and generosity for others.

Benediction

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired,
when a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped His arms around you and whispered, "Come to me."

You didn't deserve what you went through.
So he gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.

And when we saw you sleeping
so peaceful and free from pain.
We could not wish you back to suffer that again.
