Reflections of Life

Mary (Miller) Campbell was born on July 11, 1933 in Wilcox Co., Georgia to the late RT and Susie (Brown) Miller. Mary and her family relocated to Passaic, New Jersey.

She was educated in the Passaic School system. Mary later met and married William "Bill" Campbell on November 3, 1957. She was formerly employed by the Continental Cans as a Quality Control Operator. She was a member of the Mt. Pilgrim Missionary Baptist Church, Passaic, NJ where she served on its Senior Usher Board. She later moved her membership to The Hope Reformed Church, Clifton, NJ. Mary was a loving and caring person who would help anyone. To know her was to love her.

Mary departed this life on Friday, April 30, 2010 at her home.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: her husband for over fifty years, William "Bill" Campbell; and a host of other relatives, friends and The Hope Reformed Church family.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room,

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long, and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared,

Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take,

And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan,

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,

Go to the friends we know.

Laugh at the things we use to do

Miss me-but let me go.
