Obituary

Annie Grace Pulley-Wilson was born to Jimmie Williams and Mariah Jobe on July 29, 1942 in Alabama. She was the ninth child born into a family of thirteen. Annie was called into her eternal life on the morning of Tuesday, May 18, 2010.

Early in life, Annie moved to Englewood, New Jersey where she was a long time resident. She joined Mount Olive Baptist Church where she served as a Vice President of Nurses Ministry and a member of the Gospel Choir and the Missionary Ministry. She was very loving and gentle, a person of a quiet and meek spirit. Everyone loved her.

Annie leaves to cherish her memories: three children, one daughter, Denise (Richard) Lucy of Mobile, AL; two sons, Nathaniel and Curtis of Englewood, NJ; seven grandchildren, Lamelle, Ravon, Victoria, Curtis, Kyanna, Travelle Pulley of Englewood, NJ, Kecia and Richard, Jr. of Mobile, AL; three great-granddaughters, Xarianah, Zariah and Lianna. Annie was a loving and nurturing mother to her children, grandchildren and great-granddaughters. She also leaves to mourn three sisters, Mattie Williams of New Orleans, LA, Louvenia (Leo) Dozier of Townsend, DE and Ella Mae Williams of Englewood, NJ; two brothers, Johnnie Williams of Long Island, NY and Robert Williams of Mobile, AL; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Those who knew and loved her will sadly miss her.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
