Obituary

Clara Mae Williams was born on April 10, 1949 in Lawrence County, Alabama to the late Clyde and Hazella Williams.

Born and raised in Alabama she received her education. On November 18, 1969, she was married to her late husband, Willie Jo Mason. During their marriage she moved to Buffalo, New York and then to Irvington, NJ as she worked and raised two daughters, Hazel Elane Mason and Rebecca Sharon Mason.

Clara Mae Mason dedicated her life to Jehovah in the late 1980's. She preached to family, neighbors, and whom ever she reached out to share some words of wisdom and encouragement. She always told ones that Jehovah has something better for her and everyone else that listens, of the life that Jehovah has in store for ones that did his will. She held that dear to herself until her last breath.

She was preceded in death by one sister and three brothers.

She leaves to cherish in her memory: two daughters, Hazel Elane Mason and Rebecca Sharon Mason (Irvington, NJ); one brother, Lemon C. Williams (Chattanooga, TN). She also leaves her dear brothers and sisters that she kept so dear to her heart in Jehovah World Wide Organization.

“Gods Promise of Paradise”

Prayer and Recessional

Cremation

Rosedale Crematory
Orange, New Jersey

1. A paradise our God has promised,
By means of Christ's Millennial Reign,
When he'll blot out all sin and error,
Removing death and tears and pain.
(Chorus)

2. Soon here on earth, for God so purposed,
His Son will cause the dead to rise.
It was the promise of Christ Jesus:
'You'll be with me in Paradise.'
(Chorus)

3. O joy of joys! What grand reunion
When billions dead return to life!
'Twill be a time of fine instruction,
Completely free from hateful strife.
(Chorus)

4. Yes, Paradise our Lord did promise.
And he is now earth's rightful King.
So let us thank our God, Jehovah.
Do leap for joy; his praises sing.

(Chorus)

A paradise the earth will be.
With eyes of faith this we can see.
This promise Christ shall soon fulfill,
For he delights to do God's will.

In Appreciation

From the family of Clara Mae Mason to family, friends, neighbors and brothers and sisters thank you for your support and words of encouragement to help us get through our time of sorrow and pain.
