God

*Didn't promise days without pain,
Laughter without sorrow or sun without rain.
But God did promise strength for the day
Comfort for tears and a light for the way
And for all who believe in His Kingdom of LOVE, He answers their FAITH with PEACE from above.*

Reflections of Life

Our loved one Mrs. Cheryl Campbell born July 28, 1955 came to her demise on May 19, 2010. She was raised by both parents Myrtle Jackson and the late James Jackson.

She attended Abington Avenue School & Barringer High School both in the city of Newark, graduating in the top ten of her class. She continued her education at Trenton State College and received her Associates of Science Degree in Business Administration. There she became a sister in the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

After working at First National Bank for eighteen years she then moved up to working in the Music Industry at BMG for fourteen years in Lyndhurst, New Jersey.

She then married Irving Campbell and they had a son, Towan Campbell. Years later she raised her stepdaughter, Zakiyyah Peoples. Her first born son Shawn Jackson came to his demise at an early age of three years old. Then moving forward she became a member of Union Baptist Church of Newark, NJ where she remained until her demise. There she put her hands to the plow and helped in every way. She became President of the Nurses Ministry and a helping hand in every Ministry at Union Baptist Church. She loved all children and they loved her, but Meiya Carter loved her in a special way. Cheryl never hesitated in caring for her father until his demise. Then she continued caring for her mother until Cheryl began her own physical challenges. Although she faced physical challenges her priorities were God, caring for her mother, family, church family and friends. Her favorite sayings were "Thank You God" and "Anything else you want". Her last word was "Mommy". Cheryl's love was unconditional and we will miss her dearly.

Preceding her in death were her father, James Jackson and her beloved son, Shawn Jackson.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her mother, Deaconess Myrtle Jackson; her estranged husband, Irving Campbell; her son, Towan Campbell; stepdaughter, Zakiyyah Peoples; six grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. Brenda Boyd, Ms. Kathy Jackson, Ms. Lisa Jackson Byrd and Mrs. Lorri Jackson Betts; two brothers-in-law, Mr. Augustus Boyd and Mr. Kirk Betts; Mr. Todd a dear friend to the family; five aunts; two uncles; five nieces; five nephews; one great niece; three great nephews, cousins, church family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now-He set me free*
