The Obituary

Aileen Weaver was born on May 23, 1948 in Macon, GA to the late Mamie and Louis Haugabrooks, Sr. Soon after her birth the family migrated to Newark, New Jersey where she received her early childhood education at Miller Street Elementary School and graduated from South Side High School in Newark, NJ. She enrolled in Drake School of business and successfully received a degree certificate in business.

Aileen received Christ as her personal Savior at the New Point Baptist Church in Newark, NJ and was baptized under the late Rev. S.L. Foote. She served the church on the Jr. Usher Board.

In 1969, she was united in matrimony to Ulysses Weaver. No children were born to this union.

Aileen was employed by the Federal Internal Revenue Service as a Supervisor for more than thirty years until she retired. She was known for her humble, loving, selfless, caring ways and pleasant spirit.

After an extensive illness, on the morning of her 62nd birthday, the Lord called her from labor to reward from the White House Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Orange, New Jersey.

Preceding her in death was her mother, Mamie Haugabrooks; her grandmother, Minnie Johnson; her uncle, Sam Johnson; her aunt, Rosa Mae Davis and her sister, Clarissa Haugabrooks.

Aileen Weaver leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted brothers and sisters, Louis Haugabrooks, Gail Outen, Minnie Haugabrooks, Zackary Haugabrooks, Beatrice Haugabrooks, Loretta Davis and her husband, Vincent, Penelope Parker and her husband, Julius, Anthony Haugabrooks; uncle, Rev. James Simmons of Atlanta, GA; aunts, Dorothy Adams, Veronica Hunter and husband, Bruce and Goldie Elliott; a devoted friend, Hank Woodridge; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Humbly Submitted,
The Family

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
