Reflections of Life

Shante' LeShawn Marquis was born February 25, 1987 at University Hospital in Newark, NJ to Tracey Marquis.

Shante' was affectionately known as "Pumpkin", "Tweety", "Peanut", "Bombay", "Cuzin" and "Shorty".

Shante' attended West Caldwell Vocational in West Caldwell, NJ until Shante' and her mom decided on moving to Willingboro, NJ for a better education and environment.

They purchased their first home in August 2004 where Shante' graduated high school from Burlington County Institute of Technology with a Diploma specializing in Culinary Arts.

Shante' loved to create her own recipes and perfect the recipes of others.

Shante' dreamed of having her own restaurant called "Bombays".

Shante's closest friend was her cousin, Jaquetta Burr they loved each other dearly. No one else shined as bright in Shante's eyes as Jaquetta. Even in Shante's passing their special bond will never be broken.

Shante was called home on May 29th, 2010. She will be missed very much.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving mother, Tracey Marquis; aunts, Laranda Foster, Shaneek Marquis and LaKiesh Woodley; uncles, Sean Goodman and Brian Woodley; cousins, Kelvin Johnson (K.J.), SeJada, Asaad, Kenya and Sean Goodman; and a host of great aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and many friends.

God Saw

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her
And saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best
Eased her suffering, gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.
