Obituary

Mr. Warren R. Roach was born on March 30, 1950 to Johnnie Mae (Joan) and Samuel A. Roach both from Rockhill, SC. Later relocated to Newark, New Jersey.

Warren grew up here with his brother, Foy A. Roach and sister, Deloris L. Heckstall.

He was a graduate of West Side High School. Shortly after that he joined the Army. He met Marilyn Roach and was later married on July 3, 1971. To this union his daughter, Shantia Glover was born and later had a son, Altariq Nixon by Judith Nixon. He later had a son, Warren (Corey) Wiley by Laurie (Sissy) Wiley.

He adored his children Shantia, Altariq and Warren and his grandchildren Al-Tamar Glover and Imani Glover, Laurie and Joyie Wiley. He loved his in laws and best friend, Jerry Garretson.

As a senior in High School he worked part-time with Rich a Sons . After graduation he was employed with General Motors. He was later employed by Newark Liberty Airport and followed by Newark Board of Education. He stayed there until his unfortunate death.

On June 2, 2010 at 4:41 a.m. he was called home. We love him and he will be deeply missed.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Marilyn Roach; two sons, Warren (Corey) Wiley of (Rock Hill, SC), Altariq Nixon (New York, NY); one daughter, Shantia Glover (Newark, NJ); four grandchildren; one sister, Deloris L. Heckstall; brother, Foy A. Roach; two aunts, Jeanette Richards (New York, NY) and Dorothea Franklin (Cleveland, Ohio); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Farewell

*Our family circle has been broken link
has gone from our chain;
But though we are parted for a while,
We know we will meet again.
Sometimes it's hard to understand why certain things must be, but there is a reason for it all, beyond our power to see.
The cover of life's book is closed for one we loved so well; But the loving deeds of by-gone days are what the pages tell.
The blow was hard, the shock severe;
We never thought your death was so near.
But only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.*
