*Rev. Ruby Williams, Officiating
Sir Joshua Nelson, Organist*

I heard the voice of Jesus say: "Come unto me and rest; Lay down, thou weary on lay down thy head upon my breast." I came to Jesus as I was, weary and worn and said; I found in Him a resting place, and He has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say: "I am this dark world's light; Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise, and all thy day be bright," I looked to Jesus, and I found in Him, my star, my sun; and in that light of life I'll walk till traveling days are done.
-Amen

She bid no one a last farewell,
She said goodbye to none;
The heavenly gates just opened wide
And God's loving voice said come.
Although her soul is now at rest,
And free from care and pain-
The world would seem like Heaven
If we had her back again.
-Amen

The Life of Doshea E. Crutchfield

Doshea Elizabeth Crutchfield was born on May 19, 1923 to the late Lucille and Ivory Martin in Washington, D.C.

She attended elementary and high school in Washington, but at the age of nineteen, she moved to New York City, New York. While in New York she became a matriculated student at New York University majoring in Education. Upon graduating NYU she gained employment with United Cerebral Palsy as a teacher, educating handicap children for many years until her retirement at the age of sixty-two.

Doshea moved to East Orange, New Jersey and decided to spend the rest of her life teaching and inspiring others. She was active in her community and became a volunteer teacher throughout the East Orange School district. Doshea always told young individuals "If you want to accomplish something in life never let someone tell you no, just have faith, believe in yourself and things will work in your favor".

On Sunday June 6, 2010 the Lord sent an angel to take Doshea home to glory.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: two children, Debora and Robert Crutchfield; seven grandchildren, Lamont and Katrina Taylor, Aliese E. Bennett, Maxine, Mathew, Michael and Robert Crutchfield, Jr.; great grandchild, Jordan Sanchez. She is also survived by other relatives and friends.

Doshea Crutchfield was an ambassador of love and strength. She will always be loved and greatly missed....

*GOD, grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time; Enjoying one moment at a time; Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace. Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will;
That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.*

Amen
