

The Precious Gift

One gift, above all others
God gives to us to treasure
One that knows no time, nor place
And one gold cannot measure.

The precious, poignant, tender gift
Of Memory...that will keep
Our dear ones ever in our hearts
Although God gives them sleep.

It brings back long remembered things
A song, a word, a smile
And our world's a better place because
We had her for awhile!

Obituary

Doris Pierce Walker was born on May 4, 1942 in Raleigh, North Carolina, the daughter of Reatha Finch Pierce and General Grant Pierce.

She was a 1986 graduate of Jersey City State University in Jersey City, New Jersey.

Mrs. Walker was employed as a Teacher at Battin Middle School in Elizabeth for seven years and had taught for over thirty years. She was a member of the NJEA (New Jersey Education Association).

Doris was an avid pianist and was very creative. Doris sacrificed mightily for her family.

Doris Pierce Walker departed this life on Wednesday, June 9, 2010 at Robert Wood University Hospital at Rahway at the age of 68. She was predeceased by her husband, Andrew L. Walker, Sr.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: two sons, Andrew L. Walker, Jr. and Tracy L. Pierce; one daughter, Teresa L. Adjangba; one sister, Trelessa L. Sirleaf; one brother, McClellan Pierce; three grandchildren, Theodora, Tesia and Matthew; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Fill not your hearts with pain and sorrow,
But remember me in every tomorrow.
Remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles,
I've only gone to rest a little while.
So dry your eyes and remember me,
Not as I am now, but as I used to be.
Because, I will remember you all
And look on with a smile.
Understand, in your hearts,
I've only gone to rest a little while.
As long as I have the love of each of you,
I can live my life in the hearts of all of you.*

Lovingly and Sorrowfully,
The Family
