

God saw that you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put his arms around you
And said come to me.

With tearful eyes we watched
you wilt away
Although we loved you
We could not make you stay.

The time has come to say goodbye
So we'll say so long without asking why.

Reflections of Life

Theodore Carter was born to the late Arthur Carter and Lillian (Jones) Carter on February 11, 1936 in Buckingham County, Virginia.

He graduated in 1954 from Buckingham Training School in Farmville, Virginia. He moved to New Jersey in 1956 where he worked for Grand Union and then Ford Motor Company in Mahwah, New Jersey. While working for Ford he attended Lincoln Technical Institute where he obtained a certificate in Automotive Repair. After retiring from Ford he started his own scrap metal business. In his spare time he maintained, repaired and restored cars and trucks. He enjoyed spending time with his family.

He was a former member of the Christ Temple Baptist Church where he sang on the young adult choir where he led his favorite song "Touch the Hem of his Garment."

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Antoinette.

He entered into eternal rest on June 20, 2010 at St. Joseph's Hospital, Paterson, New Jersey after a brief illness.

He leaves to mourn his loss: wife, Arneather (Lockett); two sons, Theodore, Sr. (Doris) and Gregory W. (Tonda); daughter, Valerie; three grandsons, Theodore, Jr. and Donte' all of Clifton, NJ and Gregory T. of Paterson, NJ; a brother, Arthur B., Sr. (Marjorie) of Farmville, VA; two sisters, Louise Delphine of Passaic, NJ and Lilvondetta of Maryland; two nieces, Fentress of Passaic, NJ and Veronica of Odenton, Maryland; a nephew, Arthur B., Jr. (Vickie) of Laurel, Maryland; a best friend, Donald Johnson; and a host of other relatives, friends and neighbors.
