

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away,
Her journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one
Just think of her resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away
And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much.*

Obituary

Wendy Reneé Watson was born on November 4, 1965 in Washington, D.C. to the late Joseph Watson and Sallie Goins. She made her transition from this life to her heavenly home on Friday, June 18, 2010 at University Hospital.

She attended Hawthorne Avenue School and Weequahic High School. She also attended night school and received a degree as an office assistant. She found employment with several companies including West Orange Public School Bus Company and shared her beautiful personality with thousands during her service to the community as a bus driver for New Jersey Transit.

She was the “best” mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt and friend. She gave and gave and gave lovingly to any and all. She loved God. Wendy was a member of the church and attended service several days of the week. She was a wonderful cook and she blessed us with her loving southern soul food cooking.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: her mother, Sallie Goins; fiance, Kirby Green; three sons, Careem Watson, Antwan and Isiah Prayear; two daughters, Latrice Watson-Sabb and Fatia Watson; two granddaughters, Shy’Azia and Zakayla; her only son-in-law, James Sabb; two brothers, Alonzo Person and Dudley Watson; best friends, Cathy Avery, Doris Henderson and Lisa Pierre; three nephews; one niece; two great nieces; and a host of aunts, uncles, other family members and friends.

She was preceded in death by her father, Joseph Watson and a brother, Jeffrey Watson.
