Obsequies

Winzel Daniel Jacobs, Sr. was born on March 17, 1948 in Elizabeth, New Jersey to the late Rufus Daniel and Edna Moment Jacobs.

Winzel or affectionately known as "Jake" matriculated in the Public Schools of Elizabeth. He played college football in Michigan State before being drafted into the army and serving in Vietnam. A staunch sports fanatic football, basketball and track were his favorites. He loved his Dallas Cowboys and The Philadelphia 76ers were his teams.

After his honorable discharge from the army he made his transition back to Elizabeth, New Jersey. There were no other place he wanted to live than the city where almost everyone knew his name. He was a jokester, a very funny guy, always making someone laugh. If you knew him, you would agree that he had a permanent smile on his face. He would help anyone, in any way possible no matter who you were.

Winzel would take time for others, he taught life lessons by talking to you. He had a whole lot of stories to tell, often giving great remedies. He was known for many things. Who can forget his famous spaghetti sauce, bet many of you can taste it right now. He had a heart of gold, to know "Jake" was to really know "Jake". He was a very stubborn man, set in his ways. His no meant no, not going to happen, don't ask again! There was no changing a decision he made.

Winzel was a happy man, he lived life to the fullest on his terms and no one else's. He was indeed a proud father of Kim, Wanda, Winzel, Jr., Ebonye and Aaron. You think he was happy with these five blessings, then you know he was on top of the mountain with his precious grandchildren. He would embrace each and everyone of them.

He was predeceased by his parents, Rufus Daniel and Edna Moment Jacobs, Sr.; brothers, Richard, Sr., Rufus, Jr. and Milton Jacobs.

Winzel D. Jacobs Sr. will live in the hearts and minds of those he loved, and those that loved him: his children, Kim Stevens, Wanda Calixto, Winzel Jacobs, Jr., Ebonye Jacobs and Aaron T. Breney; father-in-law of Sultan Robinson and Antonio Calixto; precious grandfather of Victoria, Nicole, Antonio, Jordyn, Kristina, Jhaida, Sultan, Jr. and Carmelo; brother of John Jacobs and Gloria Jacobs Stewart; long-time friend, Kathleen Breney; Godson of Katie Hall; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and friends.

"His Journey's Just Begun"

Don't think of him as gone away

His journey's just begun.

Life holds so many facets

This earth is only one.

Just think of him resting

From the sorrows and the tears

In a place of warmth and comfort

Where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing

That we could know today

How nothing but our sadness

Can really pass away

And think of him as living

In the hearts of those he touched

For nothing loved is ever lost

And he was loved so much.
