Dorsey Williams was born on November 10, 1924 in Henderson, North Carolina to the late Laura Williams.

Dorsey attended schools in North Carolina. After graduation he enlisted in the armed services and served during World War II from 1942-1945. Upon being honorably discharged he moved to Long Island and then relocated to Montclair. Dorsey was employed with the Township of Montclair as a Heavy Machine Operator where he retired after more than thirty years of dedicated service.

Dorsey met and married the late Carine Williams and from this union came two sons and two daughters. Dorsey was also a father to another son and daughter. Later he married the late Anne Hester. She had two children, Sylvia and Carrie.

Dorsey was preceded in death by both his parents and siblings.

On Monday, June 21, 2010 Dorsey made his transition peacefully at the Canterbury Nursing Home.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two sons, Dorsey "Levey" and his wife Phyllis, and Bryant; two daughters, Alecia, and Carla; father to Etta (Roy) and James (Nora Ann); nine precious grandchildren, Marquis, Zenia, Dorsey, Jr., Dorion, Corey, Kshone, Kyree, Quarin and Najia. Measure Of A Man

*Not - How did he die? But - How did he live?
Not - What did he gain? But - What did he give?*

*These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.*

*Not - What was his station? But - had he a heart?
And - How did he play his God-given part?*

*Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?*

*Not - What was his church? Not - What was his creed?
But - Had he befriended those really in need?*

*Not - What did the sketch in the newspaper say?
But - How many were sorry when he passed away?*

*These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.*
