TO THOSE I LOVE & THOSE WHO LOVE ME

When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled alone.

So grieve for me if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me call and I will come
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All of my love around you, soft and clear.

And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say "Welcome Home."

“Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service”

Emma Jean Wright was born on January 1, 1941 in Chickasaw County, Mississippi, daughter of the late Olivia Doss and Walter Taylor. She grew up in Aberdeen, Mississippi and was educated in the Monroe County school system.

She gave her life to the Lord at very young age and was baptized at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Aberdeen.

She later met John Thomas Wright and after a brief courtship, the two married on April 23, 1963. Emma Jean and John relocated to Linden, New Jersey, and this union was blessed with, eight children.

She was employed for several years at Magnus Organ in Linden and at Budweiser in Newark, New Jersey. She also worked at Newark Airport for many years as a Domestic Engineer.

Emma Jean was loved by everyone. Her loving and gentle, quiet spirit automatically drew people to her. She was a friend and confidante to many who would visit her and sit at the dining room table and just “talked.” She always had an encouraging word and you always felt better after talking with her. Her home was the main “meeting place” for many family celebrations or to just kick back, relax and enjoy each other’s company.

She was an excellent cook who could create a dish that could rival any top culinary artist! Friends and family would come from near and far to fellowship at her home and of course, for the main event—a taste of her good cooking. Emma Jean was a very skilled seamstress who could sew anything without even using a pattern! She loved her family dearly and knew how to make a house into a home. She had many gifts and talents and was the epitome of the Proverbs 31 virtuous woman.

Emma Jean became a member of Praise Temple Interdenominational Church of God in Linden, New Jersey and attended faithfully until her health began to fail.

Our beloved Emma Jean departed this life on Friday, June 25, 2010 at Hartwyck Nursing Home in Edison, New Jersey at the age of 69 after a long time illness.

She was predeceased by her husband, John Thomas Wright; a son, Thomas Lee Wright; a daughter, Glinda Jean Doss and sisters, Linda Gettis and Lois Wells.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, five daughters, Etherine Hunter (Ezell) of Piscataway, NJ, Catherine Powell (Pastor Anthony) of Rahway, NJ, Lisa McNeil (Minister Cornia) of Linden, NJ, Annie Esturban (Amado) of Linden, NJ and Diane Wright of Linden, NJ; one son, Darren D. Wright (fiancée, Pamela Gallimore) of Roselle, NJ; eighteen grandchildren; eight great grandchildren; three sisters, Nettie Randall of Linden, NJ, Mary Kenney (Mallory) of Jacksonville, Florida and Olivia Gettis of Linden, NJ; three brothers, Sammie Doss (Leslie) of Plainfield, NJ, Henry Doss (Linda) of Rahway, NJ and Robert Earl Doss of Linden, NJ; five uncles, Charles Edwards of Kalamazoo, MI, Cleveland Edwards of Jackson, MS, Virgil Edwards of Detroit, MI and Willie Pulphus of Grand Rapids, MI; two devoted sisters-in-law, Gloria Wright and Harriett Brown; her best friend, Lillie Mae Chanoine; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Lovingly and Sorrowfully submitted,
The Family
