Reflections Of Life

On a day now consumed in eternity David Spurgeon Holloway was born in Sheepshead Bay, Brooklyn, NY on December 2, 1933 to his proud parents the late Clara Elizabeth (Hill) Holloway and the late Spurgeon William Holloway. He was the second child born to this union.

David was a dedicated servant of our Lord and Saviour. At a young age, he was baptized and attended First Baptist Church Sheepshead Bay, Brooklyn, NY where he attended Sunday School and Church. He was a faithful former member of Calvary Baptist Church, Paterson, NJ under the pastorate of Rev. Dr. Albert P. Rowe. David most recently served as a Deacon at Solid Rock Baptist in Kinston, NC where he lived for twenty-three years, before relocating back to this area and residing at the Emeritus Assisted Living facility for four years in Voorhees, NJ.

He was educated in the Brooklyn, NY school system and received medals in Track and woodshop. He retired as a Transit Motorman for New York City. He was a Chaplain in the Army where he served in the Korean War and received an Honorable Discharge. David was a man who believed in serving his community and volunteered as a cook for the Saint John's Hospital in Brooklyn. He held memberships in the NAACP, VFW, AARP, and New Jersey Sand Hill Indian Tribe. David was an active man who enjoyed many hobbies including farming, construction, bible study, cooking, great Gospel music, scouting out specials at Flea Markets, and visiting family.

David was dedicated to his family and friends. He possessed a strong sense of faith and a positive outlook on life and its many challenges. He was an inspiration to all who were blessed to know him.

He was predeceased by his parents, Spurgeon W. Holloway and Clara E. Holloway, sister, Joyce Belisle, brothers, Stanley Holloway and Rev. Dr. Edward Holloway.

He is survived by his caring family: sons; David S. Holloway Jr., and Kevin Holloway, daughters; Maritza and Xzovra Holloway, brother: Clarence W. Holloway, sisters: Deaconess Bernice Slade and Jo Ann E. Warner (Arthur), brother-in-law of Dwight "Jerry" Belisle, sister-in-law of Marlene Holloway, aunt Willie (Billie) Robinson, dedicated friend Rev. Vance Dunn and a host of aunts uncles, nieces and nephews including Maritza, David S. Holloway Jr., Xzvora Holloway and Kevin Holloway, as well as cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

On Tuesday, July, 13, 2010, the Lord whispered to him "Well done, thy good and faithful servant". Welcome home!!

To Our Brother Day

Love, Laughs, Kisses, Hugs
Fussing and complaints
Eating our cornbeef and pastrami
On rye. Roasted Duck Lemon
Dunkin Doughnuts-Gone but
Forever you will live in our hearts
Until we meet up with you
And all the rest of our family
On the side of Jordan
As Mommie always taught us

Day 107

In Silence, I Am Renewed.

I find rest and renewal in the silence of prayer. This is because, in prayer, I am consciously increasing my awareness of God. Prayer recharges my spiritual battery, and I am revitalized.

Each time I pray, I am immersed in divine love and peace. Any leftover tension vanishes, for I am in the presence of God. People or situations or circumstances that may have troubled me earlier no longer seem threatening. I give every concern over to God, and I trust God to take care of it all in the perfect way.

In silence, I become still and listen. God speaks to me through divinely inspired thoughts. Realizations come to achieve a goal. As I turn within to the silence, God truly does renew me.

"But those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength." -Isaiah 40:31

Serenity Prayer

GOD, grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time; Enjoying one moment at a time; Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace. Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will; That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next. Amen
