Obituary

Delores Jean Maddox was born on February 22, 1958 in Wilmington, Delaware. She was born one of eleven children to the late Samuel West Maddox and Gladys M. Maddox.

Delores departed this life Monday July 12, 2010 after a long battle with chronic health issues stemming from diabetes cardiac health problems. On that day, Delores was called upon by our Heavenly Father to rejoice with her mother, father, sisters, brothers, grandchild and friends.

Delores moved to New Jersey where she received her formal education. She also loved to take care of her only son, Tony James Maddox. She later devoted her time in Orange Public Schools and the Occupational Center.

Delores loved her family. Everywhere she would go, she would always introduce them to everyone. She always bragged about her grandchildren to anyone who would listen. Delores attended church even when her health didn't allow her to go. She loved church and she loved to read the Bible faithfully.

She is survived by: brothers, Dennis and Purvest Maddox; sister, Mary Maddox, and child, Tony James Maddox, beloved daughter-in-law, Sherriner Williams; grandchildren, Ja'Quan Eggleston, Ronald Perry, Imarre' Anthony Maddox-Williams, Iyan-Nasseen Maddox-Williams and Imaya-Sherrine Maddox-Williams; as well as a good friend, Janice Stewart.

Do It Anyway

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish ulterior motives; Be kind anyway.

If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies; Succeed anyway.

If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; Be honest and frank anyway.

What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; Build anyway.

If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; Be happy anyway.

The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; Do good anyway.

Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; Give the world the best you've got anyway.

You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; It was never between you and them anyway.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them in their time of sorrow.

May God bless each of you.
