Reflections of Life

Daryl McClam known by family and friends as “Qwamaine” was born November 8, 1974 at Wayne General Hospital in Wayne, New Jersey to Wendy McClam and Nonnie King.

He was educated at School #4 Grade School and continued his education at Passaic High School in Passaic, NJ.

He loved reading and excelled in mathematics. When placed in front of a basketball game whether in person or on television he thrived on the action of the sport.

Daryl was also a quiet, easy going, spiritual and yet he was extremely creative with writing poetry and his own rap music.

He loved dressing well and was a sales representative for six months at Lord & Taylor’s in the Willowbrook Mall in Wayne, NJ.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his parents, Wendy and Nonnie; his brother and best friend, Perry McClam; one sister, Tanisha McClam; three nieces, Savon McClam, Brandy McClam and Nyzay Richardson; one sister-in-law, Ellie McClam; step-father, Mitchell Moore; and a host of aunts, uncles and cousins. His memory will forever remain in their hearts and minds.

My Farewell

*Our family circle has been broken link
has gone from our chain;
But though we are parted for a while,
We know we will meet again.
Sometimes it's hard to understand why certain things must be, but there is a reason for it all, beyond our power to see.
The cover of life's book is closed for one we loved so well; But the loving deeds of by-gone days are what the pages tell.
The blow was hard, the shock severe;
We never thought your death was so near.
But only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.*
