Obituary

Josephine Bellamy was born on September 3, 1948 to the late Lucy and Alvis Hunt in Henderson, North Carolina.

She later moved to New Jersey and worked for many years at Arrow's Uniform Company. In 2001, Josephine became a Home Health Aide, that was the type of person she was always helping anybody that needed it. Always having a smile with a big heart, no matter what. She always loved to cook and spend time with her grandchildren whom she loved so much and loved to spoil them all.

On July 24, 2010, Josephine was called home to join her mother and father Lucy and Alvis Hunt, only sister, Lizzy Johnson, brother, Alvis Hunt, Jr. and grandmother, Lizzy Sneed.

She leaves behind to mourn: her husband, Jesse Bellamy; four children, Kim Hunt, Al-tariq Hunt, Nakia Hunt and Nyasha Hunt; one brother, Stanley; ten grandchildren, Nakeisha, Tatiannah, Keona, Sequoia, Tahje, Brittany, Desiree, Angela, LuNaj and Shakur; one great grandchild, Zayquan, all of Newark, NJ; one god-daughter, Vanessa; and a host of other relatives and life time friends.

“Our Mother”

*A total self commitment
No fume nor furtune need;
She gave herself completely
In thought, in word, in deed.
She never stopped to wonder
On blessing she might earn,
But tried instead to teach us,
And prayed that we might learn.
And now we're older, wiser,
We understand much more
And look with admiration,
Her presence we adore.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
