Obituary

Lawrence Alexander Manning, Jr. was born to the late Lawrence Alexander Manning, Sr. and Jean (Jenkins) Manning on March 23, 1950 in Brooklyn, New York.

He graduated in 1968 from Franklin K. Lane High School in Brooklyn, New York. He began working for the United States Postal Service immediately upon graduation, where he worked for thirty-five years.

“Butch” as he was known to many and his wife of forty-three years and three children were members of the Israeli Tanach School from 1974 until his time of death.

After retiring from the United States Postal Service, he continued his already twenty years or more of membership and support to Alcohol Anonymous.

He entered into eternal rest on July 30, 2010 at Calvary Hospital, Bronx, New York after a courageous fight with cancer.

He leaves to mourn his loss: mother, Jean; wife, Shirley Manning; three sons, Lawrence III, Iananno and Iananno, Jr.; his one and only sister, Laurie; four brothers, Keith, Robert, Michael and Richard Borden; and a host of other relatives and friends.

He joins his father, Lawrence Alexander Manning and brother, William Arthur Manning who preceded him in death.

Serenity Prayer

*GOD, grant me the Serenity
To accept the things I cannot change,
The courage to change the things I can,
And the wisdom to know the difference.*

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.
