Obituary

Leroy Conrad Richardson or “Leo” as he was affectionately called, was born on July 3, 1933 in New York City. He was the fourth of six children born to the late Aston Lorenzo Richardson and Francella M. Richardson.

Leroy was a quiet, private person and had a great sense of humor. He loved to cook and eat, often singing or humming while preparing food.

He was a graduate of Haaren High School, New York City and St. John’s University, Queens, New York where he earned a B.A. Degree in sociology. He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict. He worked for a number of years as a Counselor/Social Worker for J-Cap of Queens, NY. He administered the GED Program at that Facility.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, Rudolph and Sonny, and sister, Thelma.

He leaves to cherish his memory: three children, Leigh, Derek and Marc; his companion of many years, Mary Stubbs; two step-daughters, Donita and Renée; three grandchildren, Ernest, Shynice and Jayden; two sisters, Mildred and Enid; brother-in-law, Mike; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last. Did you wonder I so calmly Trod the valley of the shade? Oh! But Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade. And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still: Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will. There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand; Do it now, while life remaineth -
You shall rest in Jesus' land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home: Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!*
