Reflections of Life

Cynthia “Big Red” Adams was the first of five children born to the late Wesley Adams and Faith Ann (Jarvis) on December 4, 1959 in Hollywood, Florida.

She moved to Paterson, NJ at the age of two. She attended Public School No. 6 and Eastside High School where she graduated. She was employed at Eastern Bindery for two years. She was a stay at home mom who was funny, loving, caring, giving and a open hearted person who became the neighborhood babysitter. She showed unconditional, authentic love for every child she cared for.

She leaves behind: her better half, Dorris Dickens of Paterson, NJ; three daughters, Harmony Clanton of Savannah, GA, Nina Kemp and Ashanta Adams of Paterson, NJ; five sons, Savar Langler of Savannah, GA, Haseon Adams, Raaseon Adams, Daaseon Adams and Keisheon Adams of Paterson, NJ; two sisters, Doral Adams and Roberta Adams of Paterson, NJ; three brothers, Wesley and Elbert Adams of Rodchester, NY and Leslie Adams of Valdosta, GA; two step-daughters, Tiffany Sheffields and Sakeya Hinson of Paterson, NJ; two daughters-in-law, Shareal Wright and Keshawn Pierson of Paterson, NJ; thirty-four grandchildren; three great grandchildren; her best friend, “Shorty Rock”; her home health aide, Shanaya Davis; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Recessional

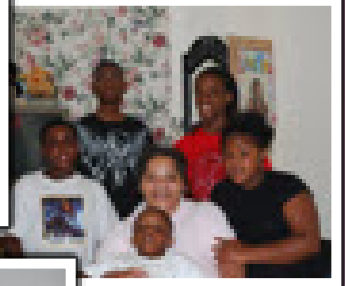

Mother

You were a precious gift from God above so much beauty, grace and love. You touched our hearts in so many ways your smile so bright even on the bad days. You heard God's whisper calling you home, you didn't want to go and leave us alone. You loved us so much you held on tight, till all the strength was gone and you could no longer fight. He called your name twice before you knew you couldn't make him wait anymore. So you gave your hand to God and slowly drifted away, knowing that with our love we will be together again some day.
