Obituary

Horace L. Davis son of Gladys Davis and Clarence Smith was born on February 2, 1940 in Forsyth County, North Carolina. He departed this life on August 19, 2010 at Einstein Hospital, Bronx, New York.

"Tweety-Byrd" as many know him, received his education in New York City. He worked at various jobs, NY Shipyard, Security Guard, taught driving lessons and he worked with MTA for over thirty-five years. He retired from the job he loved so much due to his health in 2004.

Throughout his illness he had a strong positive outlook of life. He kept an upbeat attitude smiling and joking until the end.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Carrie Davis whom he loved very much; one daughter, Monique Edwards; one granddaughter, Te'Airra McIntoch; two grandsons, Tiwaun Edwards and Armon Malik Lewis; one great granddaughter, Jal'iah Johnson; one great grandson, Royce Hammock all of Westland, Michigan; two nieces whom he always called his children, Octivia and Ebony Bagley and their children, Chayne, Chayse, Coreá, Torey and Zaire; four brothers-in-law; five sisters-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Tweety touched many lives. We love you and will always miss you very much.

Thanks to Ron his friend for the support he gave him.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
