Reflections of Life

Martha Ann (Evans) Carr was born in Richmond, VA to the late John and Alice (Brown) Evans. She attended the Maggie L. Walker High School, and was a member of the Marching Band, where she played the Trombone.

Martha formerly of Paterson, NJ for more than 35 years prior to moving to North Bergen, was the wife of the late George Carr. She was employed at Jacob's Department Store in Paterson for several years until her retirement. She took great pride in greeting and assisting her customers. She enjoyed reading, especially the Daily Word, and doing word puzzles. She had a passion for a good football game, but "O" those GIANTS!!

Martha was a former member of the Riverview Baptist Church in Richmond, VA, where she served as a Sunday School Teacher, Usher, and sang on the choir. She was predeceased by her husband, George Carr; a sister, Ollie Gaye Goode; and brothers, Billie and Robert Evans.

Martha Carr entered into eternal rest on Tuesday, August 31, 2010.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, a loving son, Billie Evans, and his wife Elease; a loving daughter, Beverly Carr; a step-son, Willence "Bubby" Davis, his wife Karen and children; grandchildren, Lukeisha Carr, who was loving, caring, devoted, and attentive to her every need; Don A. and Patrick McCoy, and Karen Carter; a brother-in-law, Wilbert Carr; a godchild, McKaila Singletary; a special loving friend Caridad "Cary" Rodriguez; the staff at the Harborage Life Care Home; A Maltipoo named "Baxter" which she called her great grandchild; several nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

In Tears

We Saw

You

Sinking

In tears we saw you sinking
And watched you fade away.
Our hearts were almost breaking
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping
So peacefully and free from pain
How could we wish you back
To suffer that again?
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home
