Reflections of Life

Clifford Colston was born on May 26, 1926 in Quincy, Florida, to the late Jack and Laura Colston. He resided in Bronx, New York, Tallahassee, Florida, and Daytona Florida for many years before moving to Fair Lawn, New Jersey seven years ago.

He was inducted into the United States Armed Forces during World War II, where he served for two years from 1945-1947. He was employed as a Sanitary Engineer for Daytona Public Schools until his retirement.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Jack and Laura Colston; a devoted aunt, Rachelle Williams; and a devoted uncle, Richard Williams.

He leaves to cherish fond memories: a devoted and caring wife, Amelia (Williams) Colston of Fair Lawn, New Jersey; one god-child, Jared Cornell McPherson of Carlsbad, California; two sisters-in-law, Katherine McPherson and Camilla Jeter of Paterson, New Jersey; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

“I Finished My Journey And I Am Satisfied”

Be happy for me I am so at peace

Be comforted and know

My love for you will never cease.

You know I'll always be with you

From now until the end of time

For now I'm with my Savior

And everything is just fine

So dry your tears and wipe your eyes

I finished my journey and I'm satisfied..

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.

God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
