Obituary

Lawrence Walker was born and raised in Harlem, New York to the late Ruby Walker and the late Dr. Lawrence Walker on June 22, 1936. He was the fourth of six children.

“Larry” as he was affectionately known to his friends and family, was educated in the public school system of New York City. After graduating from high school, he served in the United States Army from 1955 and was honorably discharged in 1963. When he returned from the Army, he took a job working at a Printing Company in New York City.

In 1968, he moved to Washington, D.C. where he became a Computer Systems Analyst for the National Underwriters Association. Larry retired from that position in 1997 and returned to his native New York to be with his loved ones.

Lawrence was a loving person who always believed in the solidarity of family. He will be missed. We love you and we will miss you.

He leaves to mourn: his brothers, Oliver Roberts and Richard Walker; sisters-in-law, Lena Roberts and Sandra Walker; his nieces, Marlene Bennett, April Evans, Dana Freeman, Peggy Roberts and Pamela Walker; nephews, Marquis Brunson, Thomas Hubbard, Wayne Hubbard, Eric Roberts, Gregory Roberts, Rev. Marc Roberts and many close friends.

Be Not Afraid

“Be not afraid” the Master said,
“I’m with you always,” so instead
Of shouldering my cross alone,
I place my burden on His own.
For I’m not nearly strong enough,
To make it when the going’s rough,
And it’s a comfort to believe
“You need but ask Me to receive”
Handed down to me through time,
These blessed words of hope,
and I’m Renewed in spirit to recall
“Am I not Father to you all?”
One day these feet shall cease to roam,
Earth’s but my temporary home
I was in truth for Heaven made,
And so I shall not be afraid.
