Obituary

Derrick Walter Manderville, beloved son of the late Alice (Manderville) Nivens, was born March 25, 1955; he fell asleep approximately 2:00 a.m. September 15, 2010. He was preceded in death by his mother, Alice (Manderville) Nivens, and his eldest sister, Alicia Manderville.

Derrick was the epitome of a loving, caring and nurturing big brother and son. Born a native of Newark he attended the Newark Public School system, and also spent some of his school days in Brooklyn, NY. He then returned to NJ and attended Trinity Temple Academy. He continued on to Pine Forge Academy, Pine Forge, PA for a short time. He then returned home to help his mother with his siblings. He later attended Essex College of Business, Culinary program for a brief period, it was shortly after that he began his career in the Culinary field. Derrick had a very strong passion for cooking. It was ultimately his profession for the past twenty plus years.

Derrick surrendered his life to the Lord approximately twenty years ago, and has been anxiously serving on the Hostess Committee, Deacon, Treasurer Department and the Adult Sabbath School Division, also he took great pleasure in visiting the sick and shut-ins, if it pleased the Lord, it pleased Derrick. He was truly a strong pillar in his family helping in any way that he could. He was very witty, and had a great sense of humor. He will be truly missed by us all.

He leaves to celebrate his life with fond memories: one brother, Terrence Manderville; one sister, Denise Mann; his aunt, Geneva (Manderville) Dunlap; cousins, Arlaine Bryant, Cynthia Mitchell (Parris), Ernestine Dunlap and Willie Dunlap; two nephews, Terrence, Jr. and Matthew; two nieces, Jennifer and Dominique; one great nephew, Matthew; one great niece, Julie; and a host of many cousins, aunts, other relatives and friends.

We love you Derrick, but God loved you best.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
