Obituary

Acilaine Ovincy was born on September 27, 1967 in Saint Marc Haiti to Nelia Ovincy and Sainteliz Jean Philippe. She was educated in the Lebon Berger School system. Upon migrating to New Jersey, Acilaine was a resident of Irvington for more than fourteen years.

Acilaine was united in marriage with Wilvens Simon and from this union they were blessed with one son. Acilaine was a member of the Haitian Pentecostal Church in Irvington, and was employed by Manor Care for three years.

Acilaine was a wonderful person, she was loving and generous to everyone. She loved getting together with her family and friends and having good times. She was very close to each one of her sisters. She was always there for them when they needed her. Her dream was to go back to Haiti to preach the Gospel as soon as she was healed. She knew the Lord had work for her to do. She will be missed, but she is in a better place.

On Monday, September 20, 2010 the Lord sent an angel to take Acilaine home to glory.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Wilvens Simon; and a son. She is also survived by her seven sisters, three brothers, three nieces, three nephews, other relatives and friends.

Change of Address

Dear Family and Friends,

I want you to know that I have moved. I received a call from God, the Chief Architect, who informed me that my new house is ready and I could move immediately. Well, my new home is finished and its such a beautiful sight to behold. It is located in an exclusive estate area and it sits behind a beautiful pearly gate.

There is peace, joy and happiness here with no more pain to bear, no strife or discontent. I could go on exploring around my new home but I have to get fitted for my wings. Let me give you my new address because I highly recommend you make plans to live here too.

Acilaine Ovince

Oh yeah! Let me tell you this , I don't have a telephone yet, but first call God. If you don't have His number, He is listed in the Good Book on every page. Contact Him.
