Obituary

Gladys Addie M. Harris was born on November 30, 1916 in Halifax, Virginia to John and Carrie Carter.

She relocated to Newark, New Jersey at an early age.

She met and married in Holy Matrimony, James A. Harris. Out of that union one son, James and two daughters, Joan and Deta were born.

Later in life Gladys moved to Hillside, New Jersey where she babysat for many of her neighbors' children and friends. She was affectionately known as "Nan", "Nanny" or "Granny".

Gladys lived a long and fruitful life. She enjoyed traveling, gardening and spending time with family.

She gracefully drifted into eternal rest on Monday, September 20, 2010 at the young age of ninety-three. She went to her heavenly home to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, her husband, daughter, other relatives and friends.

Gladys leaves to cherish her memory: one son, James; one daughter, Joan; nine grandchildren; twenty great-grandchildren; ten great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Edith; special cousins, Elizabeth and Barbara; and many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. She also leaves her devoted caregivers and the St. Barnabas Hospice Staff who were so kind and generous during her illness.

Gladys was predeceased by her husband, James, daughter, Deta; two grandchildren and one grandchild.

God Saw

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, 'Come to me'
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
