Obituary

Robert Lee Brown, son of the late Sam Brown and Corrine Wigfall–Brown–President, was born on September 27, 1922 in Berkeley County, South Carolina. He entered into eternal rest on Thursday, October 7, 2010 at his home in New York City.

Robert (also known as “Shorty”) grew up in Berkley County and attended the public schools there.

At an early age, he accepted Christ as his personal Savior and became a member of Zion Methodist Church of South Carolina and as an adult was a member of Mount Zion AME Church of New York City.

At a young age, Robert move to New York City. There he met and married the late Sadie L Hunter. This union produced five children, one son, Robert Lee Brown, Jr., four daughters, Rosetta Brown-Edwards, Althea Brown-Lamaute, Patrica Brown and Shelia Brown-Jett. Robert has two additional children, a son, Darrell Burgess and a daughter, Lamona Brown.

Robert was a member of the Usher Board of Mt. Zion AME Church. His joys in life, after being surrounded by family and friends were going to church, watching the NY Mets (an avid fan) and going to Atlantic City. Robert was a quiet man. He was known for dressing sharp and wearing fancy hats. He was endeared by all who met him.

He leaves to mourn his passing and precious memories: his children; seven grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; son-in-law, Raymond Lamaute; daughter-in-law, Sharon Brown; one sister, Agnes (Mae) Rogers of Cross, South Carolina; a brother, John Brown and his wife, Lula, of Fayette Georgia; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins who loved and admired his sense of humor and his love for them.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Acknowledgement

The family would like to express their profound, heartfelt gratitude for every act of love and kindness extended to them during their season of bereavement.
