Celebrating the Life of Bernice Hay

Bernice Hay was a devoted wife of fifty-seven years, loving mother, amazing grandmother (also known as Mom-Mom) and a caring loyal friend. Bernice was born in Allendale, South Carolina, daughter of the late Annie Lou Jones and Willie Maud.

Bernice came to Newark, New Jersey at an early age. She graduated from South Side High School in 1952. After school, she was employed by the U.S. Postal Service. She later joined Morey La Rue Laundry as a bookkeeper. Bernice was a member of the Linden Scholarship Guild for many years. She was a local Den Mother for the Boy Scouts, and Bible School Teacher. She was long-time member of First Baptist Church of Linden, New Jersey.

Bernice will most be remembered for her warm personality, loving nature, her natural gift for making people feel special and for her excellent cooking. She was there for anyone who called upon her and the Matriarch of her family.

On October 14, 2010, Bernice Hay entered into a peaceful rest after a brief illness.

She was predeceased by her husband, Leon Hay, son, Keith Hay, brother, Willie Jones, and sister, Nancy McLeod.

Dedicated to her memory are: her children, Sharon Harris (Gregory), Anthony Hay (Kathleen Millar-Hay) and Harriet Royster (Kevin); her grandchildren, Janae McCloud, Brian Harris, Keith Hay and Ari Millar; one brother-in-law, Walter McLeod; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

THE YEARS.*
