Obituary

Henry Mack was born on October 31, 1922 in Maysville, South Carolina to Agnes and Henry Mack, Sr. affectionately called “Henro”, the oldest of three siblings.

Henro recognized the importance of taking care of family at the tender age of seventeen. In 1939, he left South Carolina and came to New York to work as a trucker, after that he worked as an engineer at an ice factory where he lasted forty years until his retirement.

Henro left behind four children, a daughter, three sons and a loving wife, as well as a host of family and friends. Henro was a man of God; he resided and enjoyed conversation related to the betterment of family and a God of his understanding.

Henro was a giving, caring, compassionate and loving man who lived life to the fullest with no deterrents if he wanted it he went after it planting the seeds of wisdom and encouragement along the way then watering it with the resources and support.

Having Henro as a part of our lives was a blessing in disguise and we're all thankful that he saw us through. Throughout Henro's life while working to take care of his family he always found time to nurture and pursue his interests, Henro thoroughly enjoyed music and was a huge blues fanatic.

Whether enjoying the company of his grandchildren and attending family gatherings, Henro knew the importance of spending time with those he loved and held dear to his heart his humble demeanor and quiet strength is not easily forgotten. Henro was a big man, with a big heart who lived a big joyful life.

Henro is survived by: his loving wife, Olga Arroyo-Mack; his children, daughter, Cathy and his sons, John, Edwin and the youngest Juan; as well as his nine grandchildren. We will all miss him dearly.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
