Life Reflections

Elizabeth Wright fell asleep in the Master's Arms on October 16, 2010 at the Delaire Nursing Home in Linden, New Jersey.

Elizabeth was born on June 1, 1923 in Boone Hill, North Carolina to the late Charles and Sarah Spells. She was one of twelve siblings. In 1949, she met and married the late Frank Wright.

Elizabeth worked at Dow Chemical in New Jersey for many years. She also worked as a seamstress in the Garment District in New York City.

Elizabeth was also a long time and dedicated member of Rescue Holiness Church in Newark, New Jersey.

She is predeceased by six sisters and five brothers.

She leaves to mourn: one sister, Mother Eloise Brown; five nieces; three nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Though her smile is gone forever,
and her hand we cannot touch,
still we have so many memories
of the one we love so much.
Her memory is our keepsake
with which we will never part.
God has her in His keeping,
we have her in our hearts.*

Church Family and Friends

*We little knew that morning
God was going to call your name
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone;
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide;
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same;
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to thank everyone for their expressions of love and kindness shown to them in their time of bereavement. Continue to keep us in your prayers.
