Obituary

Wayne Bruce Robinson was the eighth child born to the union of Mary Lee Lemon and John Nathaniel Robinson on December 2, 1958. He departed this life on October 1, 2010 after a brief illness. He was educated in the New York City Public Schools. He attended Benjamin Franklin High School. To this union of Wayne Bruce Robinson and Daphne Denise Benbow was born Jasmine Reneé Robinson.

His life's work was that of a certified Automotive Mechanic. He worked for a period of time for the New York City Department of Transportation. He spent most of his life working independently. His services were highly sought after by those who knew him.

Wayne was known to family and friends as a loving and caring person. He gave of himself to all who had need. He would often provide automotive services to those without means to pay. He had a deep and abiding love for his family and, especially, his daughter, Jasmine Reneé Robinson.

He was preceded in death by his father, John Nathaniel Robinson, brother, Michael Barron Robinson, mother, Mary Lee Robinson and sister, Karen Josephine Robinson-Carter.

Poem To Dad

God took the strength of a mountain,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The comforting arms of night,
The wisdom of the ages.
Then God combined these qualities,
And when there was nothing more to add,
He knew his masterpiece was complete.
I thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday,
And days before that too.
I think of you in silence,
And often speak your name.
Now all I have is memories,
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is my keepsake,
With which I'll never part.
God has you in his keeping,
I have you in my heart.
I was blessed to call you Dad,
And I will love you forever and always.

Love your daughter,
Jasmine Renéé
