From The Family:

Words can't express how much you will be missed! The time that we shared with you is priceless. With your personality and your spirit, you have left a lasting imprint on each life that you have touched. With a kind hand, you always helped those you could and with a stern voice and strong heart you protected those close to you. With a mature intelligence, you taught without teaching and with a sense of humor you made us all laugh. Although you are not here in body, you will live on in spirit and the memories that we all possess of you. You were a one of a kind man that can never be mimicked, copied, or duplicated. We will miss you dearly, so husband, dad, pop pop, Jack, don't worry we will see you again.

From The Son: Moments In Time:

*It was a moment in time
when I entered
this world and then you had a son.*

*It was a moment in time when you took me on your truck route
and to the movies and*

I had nothing but fun!

It was a moment in time when we grew apart and we really didn't talk.

It was a moment in time when you became ill and couldn't even walk.

It was that moment when I then took you to the movies and again we began to talk.

*It was that moment in time
when I realized that things happen for a reason no matter
the time, day, month, year or season.*

And now it is this moment in time where I realize I can't say I will see you tomorrow and

I can't express enough of my pain and sorrow.

But if I could have one more moment in time, I would look you in the eyes and say "Yo man I will see you tomorrow."

Rest in peace dad, I will mourn you until I join you!

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
