Life Reflections

Reatha Mae Whitley was born on October 26, 1939 in Elizabeth, New Jersey, daughter of the late Doreatha and James Robinson. She lived in Roselle, Elizabeth and Iselin before settling in Linden five years ago.

Reatha was employed as an Assembler for Ronson Fuel Corporation in Iselin, NJ for many years retiring in 2005. Prior she worked at Maidenform Company in Edison, NJ.

People will remember Reatha as being family oriented and full of life. She loved to travel with family and friends and attended social events throughout Union County. She will be truly missed by her family and many friends.

She was predeceased by her husband, Jack Whitley, Jr., brothers, Cleo and Clyde Robinson and her daughter, Deborah Anne Dawson.

On October 30, 2010, Reatha Mae Whitley made her transition from earth to glory at JFK Hospital Edison at the age of 71.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: daughter, Lisa Whitley; son, Dwayne Dawson; five grandchildren, Deane Dawson, Deniece Gross, Rahnell Dawson, Raymond Gross and Cornelius Tharrington; four great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Those we Loved remain with us,
For love itself lives on.*

*Cherished memories never fade,
Because a loved one is gone.*

Those we love can never be, More than a thought apart.

*For as long as there are memories,
They'll live on in our hearts.*

Lovingly and Sorrowfully Submitted,
The Family

“Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service”

Pall Bearers
Family and Friends of Reatha Mae Whitley

A woman with short dark hair, wearing a striped sleeveless top and a necklace, is shown from the chest up. She is smiling and has her arms crossed. To her right is a large, semi-transparent white graphic of a hand with fingers spread, appearing to be part of the background.

*There are many things in life
That we cannot understand
But we must trust God's judgement
And be guided by His hand
And all who have God's blessing
Can rest safely in His care
For He promises safe passage
On the wings of faith and prayer*
