To Those I Love

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembering joy.
Friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Do not lengthen it now with undue grief.
Though you can't see me, I'll be near
Listen with your heart and you will hear
All my love around so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*

Reflections of Life

Jane Claude Robinson was born on March 8, 1919 in Cuthbert, Georgia to the late Jessie and Clara Robinson. She quietly departed this life on Tuesday, November 2, 2010 at the age of 91, after a brief illness.

Jane came to Trenton, New Jersey at the age of three and finally came to reside in Linden, NJ which she made her home. She attended the Linden School system. She married Howard Robinson and became the parents of three children, Caryol, Meredith "Cuchy" and Howard, better known as "Jr."

She was a quiet, caring person and was known for her impeccable personal appearance. Jane was a grand homemaker who deeply loved her family and will truly be missed by them.

She was predeceased by her husband, Howard Robinson, Sr., her son, Howard Robinson, Jr. and two grandsons, Juncey and Jazz Robinson.

Jane leaves to cherish her loving memory: her two daughters, Caryol Tarver of Linden and Meredith "Cuchy" O'Neal of Albany, GA; a special daughter, Mary Shepard of Jersey City; ten grandchildren; thirteen great grandchildren; four great great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

God knew you had to leave us
But you did not go alone
For a part of each of us went with you
The night God took you home
To some you will soon be forgotten
To others just apart of the past
But to us who loved and lost you
Your memory will always last
God gave us strength to face it
And courage to bear the blow
But what it meant to lose you
No one will ever know

*Lovingly Submitted,
The Family*
