Obituary

Celeste Bryant was born on August 18, 1976 to John Greene and Debbie Bryant in East Orange, NJ. Celeste attended Essex County College in Newark receiving her GED and furthering her education to become a Medical Assistant. Although Celeste was unable to attend church on a regular basis, she was a God-fearing Christian woman.

Celeste worked very hard and put all of her heart, soul and love into her children. Celeste was such a beautiful person, she would give you the shirt off her back and there was nothing that she wouldn't do to help someone.

Celeste was always laughing and smiling and would not let anyone be sad around her. No matter what she was going through, no matter how bad things got for her, she would find a way to joke about it

Celeste leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Marion Harris, Jaquill, Maurice and John Bryant; brothers, Kenneth and Michael Bryant; sisters, Lisa Bryant, Crystal Courtney and Yolanda Brown. She is also survived by her grandmother, Ida Coleman; step-mother, Diane Voorhees; aunts, Charlotte, Alma B. Hattie, Karen, and Phyllis Voorhees; one uncle, Allan Bryant; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
