Obituary

Yves J. Dorcelus was born on July 1, 1951, he was the beloved son of Marie Carmel Dorcelus, loving father of son Peter and daughter of Yvee Dorcelus. He was a native of Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

His formal education ended in secondary school. As a kid, he used to play soccer and hunt in the rural sections of southern parts of Port-au-Prince.

He was known for telling stories that always had people laughing. He loved to socialize. He would often round up friends to take them to parties. He was loved by all his friends. Yves settled down in New Jersey in the early seventies.

He worked at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center for about twenty-nine years in Shipping and Receiving Department. In this year of 2010, he decided to retire and accepted a retirement package from his job. After retirement, he felt ill and he never recovered from his illness.

Yves died at Care One Hospice in Livingston, NJ on Sunday, October 14, 2010.

He will be remembered by: his son, Peter; his daughter, Yvee; a host of other relatives and friends.

Home At Last

We are all God's children, from the morning hour of birth, He lets us live and laugh and love, and have our day on earth. He guards us through the afternoon, till sunset's rays are cast, Then one by one, with gentle words, He calls us home at last.

Thank you

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
