Reflections of Life

Frederick R. Shannon affectionately known as (Rick) was born on March 29, 1954 to Monroe Shannon and Edith Dames in the Bronx, New York. He departed this life on Tuesday, November 2, 2010. At an early age Frederick was welcomed into the home of Monroe Shannon and Lucille Straughter who raised and nurtured him. Frederick attended the New York City Public School system and graduated from DeWitt Clinton High School in the Bronx, New York in 1972.

Rick later attended Hunter College where he studied business, during that time he accepted an internship at Courtney Locksmith in the Bronx, New York. Once he received his license as a locksmith, he became employed by New York City Health and Hospital Corporation (Harlem Hospital) where he contributed eighteen years of service.

Rick was wed into Holy Matrimony to Jeanaire Odom on March 2, 1985. To this union was born three children, Chastity, Lamonte and Isiah. Rick was a loving devoted husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle and friend who loved his family and always wanted the best for them. Rick's personality left an everlasting impression on those who "he" came in contact with. He loved to have fun with his family and friends.

Frederick's dream was to own his own business. In 2000, his dream came true where he became founder of Lenox Avenue Locksmith and Hardware Store in Harlem, New York, where he served the Harlem community as well as The New York City metropolitan area.

Frederick had a passion for fishing where he and his wife became inseparable fishing partners. They loved to travel to far places to find good fishing.

Rick leaves to cherish his precious memories: his wife, Jeanaire; one daughter, Chastity Hylton; two sons, Lamonte and Isiah; two older sons, Derrick and Frederick; one son-in-law, James, Jr.; five grandchildren, James III, Aniyah, Jadyne, Lamonte, Jr. and Jacob; his mother, Lucille Straughter; five brothers, Zachary, Walter, Ralphie, Jonathan and Bruce; three sisters, Sharon, Dorothy and Julia; four brothers-in-law; six sisters-in-law; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

To Say Goodbye

To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on,
you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound
in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.
