Obituary

Cora C. Banks was born on November 20, 1933 in Jackson, Mississippi. She was the youngest of eight children born to Albert and Leola Banks. She graduated from Lanier High School located in Jackson, Mississippi.

She later moved to New York City where she reconnected with her sister and brother. She then began to do various jobs until she landed a job at EOC, where she became a dedicated worker for thirty-seven years.

Cora was a loving mother, grandmother, aunt and a good friend to many. Cora was truly a special person with a big heart. She will truly be missed by many.

Cora leaves behind: her predeceased siblings, Juanita Banks, Margaret Wearen, Mary Brantley, Robert Lee Banks, Willie Banks, Bernard Banks, Tommy Banks and her son, Vincent Banks.

A Mother's Love

A mother's love is something that no one can explain, it is made of deep devotion and sacrifice and pain, it is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may for nothing can destroy it or take that love away...

It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking, and it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking...it believes beyond believing when the world around condemns, and it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gens...

It is far beyond defining, it defies all explanation, and it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation....a many splendored miracle man cannot understand and another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.
