Obituary

Gloria E. Mack, lovingly known as “Snookie” or “Ma Mack”, was born, raised and resided all her life in Harlem. She’s seen her neighborhood go through many a change.

She was born an only child and often wished for a sibling. She didn’t know how lucky she was.

Gloria dedicated twenty-five years of her life to the city of New York at Lincoln Hospital as a Medical Records Supervisor.

She loved children and they all loved her. After retirement Gloria volunteered her time with Experience Corps, teaching underdeveloped children to read and write. It often made her days to put smiles on those children’s faces and memories they’ll never forget.

Gloria was a kind and loving person, always welcoming any and every one with a pleasant smile and open arms.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Dexter Bennett and two children, Ronald and Beverly Bennett.

She is survived by: her two grandchildren, Krystal and Tiffani Bennett; a great aunt, Elizabeth Brown; and a host of cousins, and many, many, many close friends.

The Lord called Gloria home on Wednesday, November 10, 2010, after a kindhearted, fulfilled, jovial life of spreading much love and laughter.

Footprints

One night a woman had a dream. She dreamed she was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from her life. For each scene, she noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to her, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of her life flashed before her, she looked back at the footprints in the sand. She noticed that many times along the path of her life there was only one set of footprints. She also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in her life. This really bothered her and she questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."
