Rev. D. Keith Owens, Officiating

Obituary

Herschell E. Bugg was born on August 3, 1933 in Tampa, Florida to the late John Henry Earl James and Linconia Farmer James. She was the second born of five daughters.

She attended public schools in Tampa Florida from elementary through secondary grades. Then, she attended one year at Florida A&M University. After moving to Jersey City, she met and married her late husband, McClein Bugg. They were married for forty-five years. Two children were born from this union, Annette Lynne and Andrew Aaron.

Herschell has been a member of Salem Baptist Church since the late 1950's. She loved her church family dearly and loved serving God's people. She was an active member of the Missionary Board, Hand Bell Choir, Mass Choir and the State's Club. She enjoyed spending time each week at the Grace Church Senior Center in Downtown Jersey City. It was there, that she also became a member of the senior's Belly Dancing Group.

After raising her children, Herschell went back to school at Jersey City State College where she earned her Bachelor's degree in Health Education. She taught for many years at the secondary level before retiring from Snyder High School on July 1, 1998.

Herschell was predeceased by two sisters, Mary Catlin and Earlene Hankerson.

She leaves to mourn: a daughter, Annette Bugg-Hines; a son, Andrew Bugg; son-in-law, Rev. Charles Hines; daughter-in-law, Tracey Pettiford-Bugg; grandson, Shawn Peterson; granddaughter, Kennedy Bugg; two sisters, Cassandra West and Sharon James; brother-in-law, Abraham Hankerson; three nieces, Belinda Newborn, Cynthia Hankerson and Alanya Newborn; four nephews, Brian Hankerson, Coren Newborn, Washington Newborn and Troy West. "A Special daughter", Marilyn Oliver and a devoted caretaker, Andrea Nesbitt. As well as a host of other great nieces, great nephews, other family members and dear friends.
