Obituary

Henry Brown, son of the late Henry and Mary Brown, was born May 28, 1930, the youngest of three siblings. Raised in Harlem, he attended New York City's Public Schools. His favorite pastimes were watching television, enjoying the sounds of Jazz and R&B, and spending time with his grandchildren. He was employed for many years in the jewelry industry, of which he retired in 1992. He was best known for his wit, humor, and he enjoyed bringing smiles to all he came in contact with.

He was an individual who demanded only the best for himself and spared nothing in giving the same to others. His lively personality certainly endeared him to many. He never slacked when it came to any task at hand and getting the job done. Despite his illness and physical challenges, he still maintained a positive outlook on life.

Left to cherish fond memories are: his beloved wife, Brenda; daughter, Tanya; son, Kyle; daughter-in-law, Elaine; grandchildren, Michael, Elliot and Timmy; great grandchildren, Michelle and Genesis; four sisters-in-law, Angie, Venus, Marcelle and Audrey; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm

Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
