She Loves The Lord

Undean Pittman, affectionately known as, “Babysister”, was the daughter of the late Harvey Wiggins and the late Cora Lee Wiggins. The world was blessed with presence, when she was born on April 24, 1946 in Scotland Neck, North Carolina.

Undean worked as a librarian at William Paterson College, prior to beginning her career in serving others in the hospital industry in the 1970's. It is here where she began her life of service, working at Barnert Hospital in their Credit and Collections department. She was employed there for over thirty years, until she retired in 2008. Undean's true passion was evidenced by her work with the Church and community. Being a trail blazer for the Gospel of Jesus Christ, she solidified her mark on this earth and in the hearts of everyone. Undean, celebrated her commitment to her calling, when she joined Canaan Baptist Church in Paterson in the late 1960's, where she immediately became engaged in her life's work. Undean had a love for the work of the Lord and spent all of her adult life fulfilling her purpose until the Lord called her home, Sunday, November 21, 2010.

She served on most of the ministries in the church, starting with Dorcas Ministry in the 1970's, performing missionary duties for those in need. She later became active in the Senior Missionary Board and traveled to Haiti in 1979, where they visited the Farm in Lagoon to help feed thousands of people in need. One of Undean's true joys on this earth was in the 1990's, when she traveled with the Church to the Holy Land to praise and worship his Holy name.

Undean was the Church Clerk and also served on several boards, including the Deaconess Board, Usher Board, Women Ministry and Education Fund. She also graced the Church with her lovely voice, singing with both the Senior and Emergency Choirs. Very dear to her heart, was her work with the Youth Ministry where she mentored many of the youth in the Church. So, if you haven't noticed by now... “She loved the Lord!”

Undean was preceded in death by her husband, Calvin Pittman and her sister, Larletha Wiggins Thomas and two brothers, Carl Wiggins and James Wiggins.

She leaves to cherish wonderful memories: daughters, Pamela Pittman of Paterson, NJ and Sherry Adeyola of Richmond, VA; son-in-law, Dawoud Adeyola of Richmond, VA; brothers, Harvey (Barbara) Wiggins of Ocean City, MD, Alforse Wiggins and Harry Wiggins, both of Scotland Neck, NC; sisters, Yvonne (Eustice) McGuire, Carter (Michael) Darby, Lillie Mae Wiggins, all of Paterson, NJ, Daisy Little of Fayetteville, NC and Linne Wiggins McLean of Boston, MA; grandchildren, Cally Joy Weaver, Shaheed Adeyola, Aaliyah Adeyola and Najla Adeyola; great grandchildren, Layla Weaver and Jordan Singletary and Godchildren, Nanette Jones and Ebony McGuire. She also leaves behind very special friends, James Brown, Dashon Kelson, Janie Graham; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

Matthew 5

And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven. for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.
